

The Wisconsin Sports Network is a leader in statewide high school sports coverage. Through our websites and publications we cover everything from the tip off to the final buzzer. We are currently looking for a Chief Editor / Site Manager to work out of our Madison office managing all of our high school sports properties including:

WisSports.net – general high school sports coverage & message board
WisHoops.net – high school & youth basketball
WisFootball.net – high school & youth football
Wisconsin Gridiron Guide – high school & college football yearbook

Responsibilities:

- Manage, update and create content for all web properties and published works
- Manage volunteers, interns, stringers and sport specific experts
- Edit stories and features written by interns and sport specific experts
- Maintain & build strong relationships with media partners
- Provide customer service to website members and subscribers

Desired Qualifications:

- 1-2 years of experience in a sports news environment
- 3 years experience writing sports stories
- Highly skilled using websites
- Microsoft office suite of products

Preferred Qualifications:

- Journalism or English major
- Working knowledge of HTML
- Knowledge of video editing systems

Salary: $25K - $30K DOE + Benefits + Bonuses based on traffic and circulation

Please send cover letter, resume and clips to:

Wisconsin Sports Network
Attn: Nicholas Kartos
4915 Monona Dr
Suite #104
Monona, WI 53716

Or email to:

nicholas@wissports.net

Deadline: August 11th